SUB POLICE STATION ASKED AT ROSEMONT

Citizens' Association of That Suburb Petition Police Commissioners

ELECTS POLICEMEN

Walter Cline and G. W. Welker, Jr., Chosen—urge Mayor to Have Two More Policemen Operate Motorcyle

Citizens of Rosemont petitioned the board of police commissioners last night for a sub-police station at that place. They offered to give the present station for such purposes and put it in repair. The petition was signed by Harry Hammond, president of the Rosemont Citizens' Association, and signed by practically every resident of that subdivision. On motion of Commissioner Knight it was received and endorsed by the board and referred to city council.

On motion the mayor was requested to designate two more members of the police force who are to be taught to operate motor cycles and the patrol wagon in order that the Rosemont division may be properly policed.

The board elected Walter Cline and George W. Welker, Jr., members of the police force to fill vacancies caused by the resignations of Heber J. Thompson and Peter Hall, Jr. There were ten applicants. The election of both was made after taking four ballots.

Chief Goods submitted his monthly report showing that 126 prisoners were arrested during the month. Heading the list was unlawful speeding, forty being taken in custody for that cause. In the absence of Mayor Duncan, Commissioner George H. Schwarzmann presided. Other commissioners present were R. E. Knight, J. Edward Shlun and Arthur Hembert.

"Springtime" a fantasy of mirth and music, will be given under the auspices of the board of lady managers of the Alexandria Hospital, May 12 and 13, at the Opera House.

The production, which will be staged under the personal direction of a professional producer, will be given for the benefit of the hospital

The leading musical and dramatic talent in Alexandria is to appear in the various roles and in the dances and choruses.

"Springtime," is a musical production of merit. The libretto, music, costumes, scenic equipment ,etc., are the property of John B. Rogers Producing Comapny, and the show will be produced by a representative of that concern. The scenic equipment for the production is far more elaborate than that usually supplied for the ordinary amateur affair, and for splendor closely approaches the metropolitan offerings.

The committee is headed by Mrs. L. Wilber Reid, assisted by the board members and also the auxiliary board.

Rehearsals are expected to begin about April 25.

MRS. G. E. PICKETT TO SING

Mrs. George E. Pickett the soprano soloist in Maunders, "Penitence, Pardon and Peace," needs no introduction to the Alexandria music loving public. An Alexandrian by birth and a student of one of Washington's well known vocalists, possesses a fine lyric voice of good compass. The solo "Oh, that I knew Where I Might Find Him" and "I Sink in Deep Mire," call for a dramatic soprano voice. Mrs. Pickett although a lyric, does equally well in these two dramatic numbers and thy are well worth going to hear. They will be rendered Sunday evening at historic Christ Church.

Allentown, Pa., March 17.—A mother's warning in a dream that her son would meet with an accident came true last night, when 8 year old Clarence Krick, son of Mrs. James Levan, was declared dead in a hospital here, the result of an auto accident.

With his sister Ruth, Clarence was returning from a dandelion hunt, and stepped in the path of the motor car of Herbert C. Keller, which knocked him down.

CERTAIN GERMANY CAN PAY IN FULL

Briand Tells Deputies She Will Come Across If Allies Are Firm

ASSETS HELD LIABLE

Reparations Commission Orders 1,000,000 Marks Paid in Week—Rhineland Protests.

Paris, March 17.—Premier Briand replying yesterday to interpellations in the Chamber of Deputies regarding the London reparations conference said that if the Allies remain firm and united the Germans will discover that they (the Germans) have astonishing resources. Germany had been vanquished, he declared, but unfortunately, psychologically this was insufficiently apparent to the German people.

The military penalties, the Premier said, had to be effective, although inexpensive. Regarding security he asserted: "I might say the Allied guns are trained on Essen and we control the movement of the greatest part of the Ruhr coal."

"Today it is a begging Germany, disputing foot by foot and trying to arouse the neutral countries by bought newspapers. But the day we let ourselves be persuaded and seem to abandon our efforts, then that day one will see another Germany, one all ready to attempt in the economic domain the imperialist conquests she failed to achieve in the military domain."

Speaking of Germany's ability to pay, he declared: "Germany has no foreign debt. Her taxes are lighter than ours and her economic situation is better. The German budget has been erected with apparent dissimulation. Germany said at Spa that she could not deliver 800,000 tons of coal, but, menaced with a penalty, she delivered nearly two million.

"At London Germany declared she could not exceed the payment of 1,000,000,000 marks yearly. In five days, menaced by an ultimatum, the Germans discovered resources and agreed to pay during five years, the most difficult time, the figures of the Paris agreement. We have a right to be suspicious and say there are resources in Germany.

"Germany's position is that of a debtor and not of a merchant who pays only out of her entire assets. We have the right to tell her great feudal lords of industry, finance and agriculture: It is all your assets that are liable for payment of your debt. You have mines, forests and railroads. You have factories so prosperous that their scandalous profits no longer are published. You should mobolize them for the payment of your debt."

The Allied Reparations Commission, in its note to Germany demanding fulfillment of Article 235 of the Peace Treaty, notified the German Government it must pay 1,000,000,000 gold marks before March 23, it was announced yesterday.

The money must be deposited in the Bank of France, Bank of England or the Federal Reserve Bank in the United States, Germany was told.

The commission gave Germany until April 1 to submit a proposal to pay the balance of the 20,000,000,000 marks, estimated at 12,000,000,000 marks otherwise than in cash. Germany may submit a plan for a foreign loan by April 1, the proceeds of which shall be payable to the commission. The committee announced that Germany virtually had refused to pay the balance, asserting the 20,000,000,000 marks had been fully paid.

Some time ago the commission announced that the Allied claims for reparations had been forwarded to Berlin. The exact total of these claims has not been announced, but in usually well informed quarters it is said they probably amount to approximately 550,000,000,00 gold marks, or roughly two and one half the times the figures fixed for indemnities by the Paris conference. Computation of the total reparations was difficult, chiefly because of the widely fluctuating exchange rates, as well as the vast task of checking claims and computing the gross amount and transforming them into yesterday's figures on falling markets.

Dusseldorf, March 17.—The Rhenish Provincial Diet closed its sixteenth session yesterday with a solemn protest against the Allied penalties, asserting that instead of safeguarding the interests of the occupied territories they would utterly destroy them. The Diet declared they refused to believe that the sense of justice of the other nations would permit such a wrong.

A resolution was adopted unanimously by the Diet declaring that no matter what happens, the Rhinelanders will remain faithfully united with the German state and that neither force nor misery can separate them.

London, March 17.—The German Reparations bill, providing that the levy of 50 per cent on German goods shall not be effective until March 31, passed the committee stage in the House of Commons early this morning without vital change.

SPRING FASHIONS SHOWN BY DEALERS

Variety on Display at Formal Opening of Style Show Today

BIG CROWD INSPECTS

Parade at 7:30 Tonight—Many Floats To be in Pageant—Thousands to Witness Affair

Springtime has come to Alexandria.

Heralded by hours of preparation on the part of the many merchants of the city, the arrival of this gladsome season was fittingly celebrated this morning, when curtains were removed from the windows showing the latest and best offerings for the warm season, 1921, and hundreds of eager sight seers were on hand to view the new creations.

The sightseeing crowd this morning not only looked but in many cases bought of the new things that were displayed in the windows and in the interiors of the stores. Most of the merchants will leave their windows unlighted until 7.30 o'clock this evening which will lend considerable interest to the events that are to take place tonight.

The big style show parade will start promptly at 7.30 o'clock this evening. The parade will form on North Washington street will march east on Cameron to Fairfax, south on Fairfax to King, west on King to Payne, countermarch to King and back to Fairfax street where it will disband.

About 75 entries had been received up until noon today. This number is equal to the number taking part in the event last year and it is expected that a number will come in at the last minute.

Many beautiful effects were brought out today in the first showing of the window decorations. Women's ready to wear, shoes, millinery, lingerie, etc. were effectively displayed at the following stores: D. Bendheim and Sons, Inc., Swan Brothers, Julius Wolf, The Leader, Mrs. C. E. Bradley, Farley's, Sperling's J. Blankin and others. while foremost among the shoe displays of the city were A. Katz, P. M. Bradshaw's store, M. W. Gaines.

Vieing for first honors in the displays of men's and boys' spring and summer clothing were the stores of Abe L. Cohen, Downham and Ridgely, The Man's Store, H. Friedlander, Kaufmann and Blumenfeld, Alex. Kahlmann and B. Abramson.

Michelbach's furniture store presented a gem of a window in a beautiful bed room suite and a display of summer furniture, while the windows of M. Ruben and Sons. C. Page Waller, Jr., proprietor, were tastefully arranged with mattresses and rugs, as well as porch furniture.

Something out of the ordinary was displayed in the west window of Weil Brothers' meat market, where tempting looking cuts of meat had been garnished and decorated until they looked almost good enough to eat without cooking.

S. F. Dyson and Brother presented a nicely arranged display of stationery and other office necessities, they deserve considerable credit considering the fact that a stationery store is up against a proposition in finding articles with which to decorate a special window. The windows of the R. E. Knight and Son store presented a showing of a number of much wanted spring articles, as well as hundreds of Easter novelties and other seasonable goods.

A tasteful and beautiful display of exquisite patterns in jewelry is presented at the jewelry store of Saunders and Son and many were the favorable comments that were heard concerning this display during the morning hours.

Many other smaller windows had been tastefully arranged but space does not permit mention of all of them individually. The majority of the merchants outdid themselves in decorating and arranging the displays in their windows and deserve unlimited credit for the wholesale interest displayed.

Washington, March 17.—French wines last year exceeded by more than 177,000,000 gallons.

Elks' Meeting

State Association to be Reviewed—Alexandria Representatives Attend

Richmond, Va., March 17.—With representatives of eleven of the nineteen lodges in Virginia, of the Benevolent and Protective Order of Elks voting unanimously, it was decided by a convention held yesterday in the Elks' Home, Eleventh and Marshall streets, to revive the Virginia State Association of the Order.

The State organization discontinued its activities after the annual convention held in 1916. Suspension of activities was due to war conditions. The organization was not disbanded, however, it being agreed that there should be a resumption of the association's work when normal conditions were restored. Insistent demands for the restoration inspired State President J. V. Parker, of Portsmouth, to call the conference held yesterday. With Mr. Parker presiding and H. K. Hawthorne, of Charlottesville Lodge, at the secretary's desk, an enthusiastic session was held.

Representing the various lodges of Elks were the following:

Andrew Bell, Harrisonburg; Geo. A. Kaus, Alexandria; H. M. O'Leary, Suffolk; W. Cliff Godsey and Myer Saal, Petersburg; M. P. Ward, Newport News; R. D. Peebles, and W. P. Palmer, Manchester; D. B. Watson, Roanoke; Leon Goodman, Lynchburg; H. K. Hawthorne, J. A. Chisholm and W. H. Wood, Charlottesville; A. J. Crafts, J. F. Clarke, W. R. Harwood, H. U. Ebel, C. J. Morrison, Thomas E. Garrett, Frank D. Epps, John G. Sizer, Richard Pokrass and John B. Riley, Richmond.

After a lengthy discussion it was decided to hold the annual convention of the State association in Charlottesville. The date for the convention was left to the Charlottesville lodge to determine.

The conference adopted resolutions expressing sympathy and condolence to the families and relatives of the heroic Richmond firemen, who sacrificed their lives in the performance of duty last Sunday. A contribution of $25 to the relief fund was voted and the treasurer instructed to forward the amount to The Evening Dispatch.

The officers of the organization who will continue to serve until the next convention, were announced as follows: J. V. Parker, Portsmouth, president; W. R. Loughran, Norfolk, first vice-president; W. Cliff Godsey, Petersburg, second vice president; R. D. Peebles, Manchester third vice president; H. K. Hawthorne, Charlottesville, secretary; John B. L. E. UHLER DIES SUDDENLY TODAY

Was Stricken While at Breakfast Table at Home

VETERAN BANKER

25 Years Receiving Teller at First National Bank—President of Reliance Fire Company 17 Years.

Lycurgus Edward Uhler, seventy-three years old, one of Alexandria's best known residents died suddenly at 7.30 o'clock this morning at his residence 321 South Washington street. Mr. Uhler was at the breakfast table when stricken. Heart trouble is thought to have been the cause of his death. The deceased was apparently in the best of health at the time.

Mr. Uhler was receiving teller at the First National Bank and was president of the Reliance Motor Fire Engine Company No. 5, and for many years was a member of the common council from the fourth ward.

The deceased is survived by his wife Mrs. Alice Hough Uhler and two daughters Mrs. William L. Unduch of Baltimore and Mrs. A. Herbert Oliver of this city, and a brother, George Uhler of this city.

Mr. Uhler for the past twenty-five years had been employed at the First National Bank as receiving teller and prior to coming to that bank he had been employed at the Citizens' National Bank and for a number of years was employed in bank work at the banking house of Burke and Herbert. In all Mr. Uhler probably had spent half a century in the banking business in this city.

The deceased was an enthusiastic member of the Reliance Motor Fire Engine Company No. 5, having served as president of that company for the past seventeen and one-half years, being re-elected each year without opposition.

For about twenty years Mr. Uhler represented the fourth ward in the common council starting in his career as a councilman in 1885 and with the exception of about one term served continuously in that body up to 1919 As a member of the common council he was a valuable member of the committee on light, being chairman of that committee for many years.

Mr. Uhler enjoyed a wide circle of friends and acquaintances who were shocked this morning on hearing of his sudden death. It is expected a special meeting of the Reliance Fire Company will be held tonight at the company's house to take action on his death.

WANDERER SEES "WIFE"

Chicago, March 17.—Every night since he killed his wife and their unborn child last June, Carl Wanderer has talked with her spirit, according to testimony given yesterday by Dr. Harold D. Singer State alienist, at Wanderers trial on charges of murdering the "ragged stranger," alleged to have been hired to stage a fake hold up, Dr. Singer said that Wanderer had told him that Mrs. Wanderer has come to him nightly in her wedding gown and holding a child in her arms.

The witness said he considered Wanderer sane. Two other alienists also testified yesterday to Wanderer's sanity, their appearance being the end of the State's case in rebuttal.

TO-DAY'S THOUGHT. Saint Augustine! well hast thou said, that of our vices we can frame a ladder, if we will but tread beneath our feet each deed of shame.
Longfellow.

Saint Patrick's Day.

In or about the year 411, A. D., a certain tribe or clan of the half-savage Scots and Picts made one of their pleasant little marauding incursions upon the neighboring province to the south of the Severus Wall, belonging at that time to Rome. A comely youth of fifteen was captured and carried off by them from the country at the head of the Solway, and afterwards sold into slavery on the opposite coast of Ireland in the territory of the Irish Picts called Dal Araide. This youth subsequently became the patron saint of Erin. As his name indicates he was of patrician or noble birth. He seems to have been of a devoutly religious temperament and was much given to prayer and meditation. Escaping from slavery the lad conceived the noble plan of devoting himself to the conversion of the Irish and retired to some secluded spot for a few years to prepare himself for the priesthood. His subsequent travels took him to Rome where he received a mission from Pope Celestine. He was created a bishop about the year 441. His career as priest and bishop lasted about forty-five years. The purity and nobility of his nature, the sanctity of his life, and his devotion to the masses, won for him the adoration of the Irish people, and ultimately his canonization as a saint.

Today wherever there is an Irish heart there will be music and marching, and the gold harp on the emerald ground will float triumphant on the vernal breeze. God bless the Irish! With their mirth and their minstrelsy; with the sunshine and the storm in their tempers; with their wit and their bravery; their gallantry and their generosity, they have, indeed, brightened and ameliorated the harsher conditions of existence wherever they have forgathered with their human kith and kin.

The 17th of March is as much an American institution as an Irish. Today the air is vibrant with Erin go bragh!

High School Stadium.

The funds for the benefit of the High School Stadium are increasing in a most gratifying manner. The freshman, sophomore, junior, and senior classes of the school have each gotten a goodly share of the sums they pledged for the purpose. The Parent-Teachers Association has likewise worked industriously and successfully. One of our leading firms, R. E. Knight and Son, have generously pledged ten per cent of their sales tomorrow, Friday, as a contribution to the fund. The play to be given tonight, tomorrow and Saturday nights promises well financially. We hope the City Fathers will consider the worthiness of the object, and extend their aid. There are three track meetings scheduled this spring that it is possible to bring to Alexandria, if the stadium be completed in time. We hope this will be done.

Broken Woman is Never Repaid
Even if Man Pays, Says Divorcee

Pittsburgh, March 17.—Even when the man "pays and pays and pays," it isn't worth a woman's while.

This is the opinion of Mrs. Emma Snyder, golden haired, violet eyed young divorcee who was awarded $30,000 damages by the jury which heard her breach of promise suit against Thomas J. Stephens, prominent engineer and the father of 3 children.

Mrs. Snyder smiled bitterly yesterday as she recalled her love affair with the engineer, and its disastrous ending.

"Money cannot pay a woman for the loss of her name and her self-respect," she said. "Money can't restore a woman's faith in human nature. Money cannot make up for the ordeal through which I went—baring my very soul to those twelve men and that Judge and that awful court room full of people." I told things on the stand which, two years ago, I wouldn't have told my mother. I permitted the exhibition of those pictures of myself in negligee—pictures which were made because I loved Mr. Stephens in such a way that everything he asked of me was a sacred duty.

"Do you suppose $30,000 can pay me for that? No.

"When I sued Mr. Stephens, I sued him because I wanted to hurt him a little, because he had hurt me as only a man can hurt a woman.

"Of course I am grateful for the money. I should be utterly ridiculous if I did not admit that it means a great deal to me."

VIRGINIA WOMAN, 90, DIES LEAVING 123 DESCENDANTS

Lynchburg, Va., March 17.—Mrs. Sina Jane Dowell, 90 years old, the head of a family of five generations in which there are 123 descendants, died here Sunday night at the home of her daughter. She had 25 grandchildren, 93 greatgrandchildren and two great great grandchildren. A grandson and two great grandsons served with the American army in France during the world war. Oen great grandson now is in the service.

No Truth in Irish Truce
Rumor, Valera State.

Dublin, March 17.—Eamonn de Valera, leader of the Republicans and President of the "Irish Republic," gave a personal interview yesterday to the Associated Press correspondent. This is the first interview he has accorded to any newspaper representative since his return from the United States to Ireland.

If any proof of the extraordinary precautions taken by his devoted followers to insure his protection were needed it was afforded by extreme care taken in escorting the correspondent to and from the presence of the Irish leader. For an hour after leaving Mr. de Valera the correspondent was under the closest surveillance not only from his escort, but, as it seemed, from everybody in Dublin.

De Valera declared there was no truth in the rumors of overtures for a truce or peace or that the Dail Eireann had laid down new conditions.

"There can be peace tomorrow if England would simply refrain from her aggressions," he asserted. "We had established a peaceful, constructive administration and were setting a noble example to the world of a government based upon consent and developing our trade and industries, when Mr. Lloyd George loosed upon us his murder hordes, blooded up by official instigations and assiduously inflamed with a regular weekly bulletin of calumny and hate.

"Against this horde we will never cease to defend ourseves to the utmost of our power."

"Master Mind Sought
In Hoosier Murder Plot

Warsaw, Ind., March 17.—With a partial confession obtained from Virgil Decker, 19-year-old farmer boy, who is the leading figure in the murder Saturday of Leroy Lovett at Atwood, officials of Marshall and Kosciuski counties were last night searching for another man, declared to have been the "master mind" in a fraud plot unequaled in the annals of the State.

Decker, who was arrested in Marion, Ind., last night, was brought to Warsaw today. He has admitted so far that he accompanied the Lovett boy from this home in Elkhart to Goshen, Ind., thence to Warsaw and finally to the cabin on the banks of the Tippecanoe river where the murder was committed.

He still denies having killed Lovett and names a third party to the affair—a mysterious "guy", whose name he claims not to know.

The actual details of the crime and the motive which prompted it still are shrouded in mystery. Circumstantial evidence points to Virgil Decker as the murderer. This same evidence points to an attempted fraud of four insurance companies as the motive. The body of Lovett was identified as that of Decker by four of Decker's relatives immediately after its discovery. If that identification had been allowed to stick and burial of the body made, Fred Decker, brother of Virgil, would have benefited by nearly $30,000 as the result of accident insurance carried by Virgil Decker.

GIBBS SEES GREAT WAR NOT FAR OFF

Chicago, March 17.—Sir Philip Gibbs, English journalist, whose war made famous, lounged in an easy chair at the Blackstone yesterday and told what in his opinion the world may expect to bump up against in the near future.

"There will be another great European war rather soon. You see," he declared, "the world hasn't moved forward as a result of the recent war. The various alliances now being formed, secretly or openly, merely means that the continent is choosing sides again for another tussle.

"Your present trouble here in America is due to the collapse of your European market—Germany, Austria, Russia and the other countries that are down. If Germany is wiped out economically, it will mean that the rest of Europe will also sink into a state of social and economic decay."

IN MEMORIAM

In sad but loving remembrance of our dear mother, Emma Gant, who departed this life one year ago today, March 17, 1920.

Days of sadness come over me,
Secret tears do often flow,
But memory keeps you ever near me
Though you died one year ago.
Although we cannot clasp your hand
Your face we cannot see,
But this little token shows
We still remember thee.

By her devoted children,

SECOND MAN GETS LIFE FOR MURDER OF GIRL

Lexington, Ky., March 17.—A telephone message from Booneville, Owsley county, last night says Harlod Baker, charged with the murder of Bessie Allen, 17 year old orphan girl, was given a life sentence in the State Reformatory. Grover Gabbard, jointly accused, had previously received a life term, while Robert Clark, Leonard Baker and Charles Gabbard, brother of Grover, are still to be tried. Gabbard has asked a new trial. Robert Sandlin, the sixth man, escaped immediately after the murder and is believed to have fled into Canada.

The girl is thought to have been slain because she betrayed to officers the whereabouts of a moonshine still operated by the accused men. The evidence at the trial showed the case to be one of the worst ever brought before a Kentucky court.

The men are said to have taken her to the mountains and then brought her home in a dying condition, her body riddled with bullets.

SPORTS

The Dreadnaught Athletic Club is getting ready to start its baseball season and is preparing Bergeron Field in upper King street where their team will meet "all comers" this season. The field will be fitted with sufficient accommodations to meet local needs and the diamond after improvements will be the best baseball areas in the state. On this A-1 diamond the D's will have the best talent obtainable to defend the club and they assure the lovers of the national pastime exhibitions that will stand out as beacon lights for the sport. Last Sunday when "Ole Sol" sent his rays of sunshine out for a beautiful day some of the "Ds" went out for practice. Devers, Dawson and Giles tried themselves out in practice and showed real September form. Jimmy Alexander showed form with the stick and the glove but Hayden say Jimmy is a pitcher and predicts he will star in the box this season. "Ike and Ludlow are looked upon to do some real class with the old "wagon-tongue" and "Jack" will be there with his comedy all the way through. Chief Frazer says he will be ashore till frost comes so you can expect some "shoe-string and eye-brow" stunts from the old veterin again this summer. Desperate "Desmond" from Muskeegon, Mich., stole in on a sleeper last week from the peninsular state and his name is enough. Hayden and Burgandine have some magician stuff up their sleeves which will make amateur outfits here in Alexandria challenge the winner of the big pennant.

The club is bending all its efforts to make baseball in Alexandria as clean as the sport can be found anywhere and will only meet opponents that will give a creditable showing. All citizens are invited to help us furnish exhibitions for the clean amusement of pleasure seekers and solicitations will be confined to your patronage only.

The Dreadnaughts again this season will endeavor to do their best in the promotion of all sports and will without doubt have a baseball team that will excel any aggregation in the District or Virginia. The middle of April the old "Ump" will say "play ball" and the season will be on for 36 straight victories.

Boston's Mayor Spends a Night With Hub's Down-And-Outers

Boston, March 17.—Dressed like a down-and-outer, Mayor Andrew J. Peters spent last night in the Wayfarers' Lodge, got up this morning, chopped wood for his breakfast and departed unrecognized by attaches and guests.

His adventure did not become known until he appeared at his office at City Hall about 10 o'clock today. He wore a battered slouch hat, faded blue shirt and a badly stained raincoat. A policeman, not recognizing his Honor, halted him at the office door and barred the way.

"It's all right, I'm the Mayor," he said to the bluecoat. The latter looked sharpy into Peters' face, almost dropped from amazement and stepped aside.

The Mayor's purpose was to find out just what kind of treatment the down-and-outers were getting. On the whole, he declared it "excellent."

It developed that a rather stiff-necked superintendent "put his foot in it" by intimating to the visitor that "he didn't care about becoming acquainted" with his kind, while, on the other hand, a young fellow out of work got himself "in" decidedly right by offering to help the fast-tiring, disguised official chop his share of the wood.

To him the Mayor said: "Come to ... Mayor Peters. I've got a pull at City Hall and may help you get a job."

The Mayor's story follows:

"At an early hour this morning, when it was still dark, a bell rang. I was told it was 5 o'clock. It didn't take me very long to dress, so I was at work in the wood yard from a few minutes after 5 o'clock until 7 o'clock, when we went in for breakfast. Only about one-third of the men really worked, and there was no official in the yard to see the amount of work done. Chopping wood is certainly an excellent way to get up an appetite for breakfast.

"The men who weren't working got the first table. They served a good breakfast. We had oatmeal with sugar and milk, which was excellent; bread, which was excellent, and coffee, which was not very good. I had breakfast with the others and then, with the others, left.

"I am most anxious to help get employment for these men. I shall recommend to the Council the expenditure of $1,000 to provide for improvements."

RHEUMATISM
Leaves You Forever

Deep Seated Uric Acid Deposits Are Dissolved and the Rheumatic Poison Starts to Leave the System Within Twenty-four Hours.

Every druggist in this country is authorized to say to every rheumatic sufferer that if two bottles of Allenrhu, the sure conquerer of rheumatism, does not stop all agony, reduce swollen joints and do away with even the slightest twinge of rheumatic pain, he will gladly return your money without comment.

Allenrhu has been tried and tested for years, and really marvelous results have been accomplished in the most severe cases where the suffering and agony was intense and piteous and where the patient was helpless.

Mr. James H. Allen, the discovere of Allenrhu, who for many years suffered the torments of acute rheumatism, desires all sufferers to know that he does not want a cent of anyone's money unless Allenrhu decisively conquers this worst of all diseases, and he has instructed all druggists to guarantee it in every instance.

IDLE HOUR THEATRE

Published originally as a novel in Munsey's Magazine, written by Frank L. Packard and later dramatized by George M. Cohan and presented with phenomenal success on Broadway, George Loane Tucker's production, "The Miracle Man," comes to the Idle Hour Theatre on Saturday. As a Paramount Artcraft picture this absorbing story has been hailed by the critics as one of the finest productions ever seen on the screen. With scenes laid in the haunts of criminals in New York's Chinatown, in a little village on the side of a giant mountain and on the shore of a roaring ocean, the opportunity for wonderful photographic effects has been reapplied to the limit.

But the chief interest is in the strik story, which centers about the venerable figure of an old patriarch, who is credited with the power to heal the sick and make crippled limbs whole again. To him come Tom Burke and his band of crooks from New York's Chinatown with the idea of cashing in on his powers But it doesn't work out as they calculated, for hidden away in each of them is a leaven of good, which slowly comes to the surface under the influence of their wholesome environment. In a most marvelous way the criminals are reclaimed from the paths of crime.

A cast of unusual ability enacts the important roles in the picture, headed by Thomas Meighan, a well known leading man, and including Elinor Fair, Betty Compson, Joseph J Dowling, Lon Chaney, W. Lawson Butt, J. M. Dumont, Lucille Hutton, and F. A. Turner.

Zayas is Elected President of Cuba

Havana, March 17.—Dr. Alfredo Zayas y Alfonso was elected to the Presidency of Cuba in the partial election held yesterday.

In an interview yesterday the President-elect declared he expected to have sufficient support in the National Congress to offset the threatened Liberal congressional strike. He said he hoped to be able to form a government to take office May 20. No Cabinet appointments have yet been decided by Dr. Zayas. He said he would endeavor to unite the members of the Conservative and Popular Parties into a single group.

'Unknown' in Arlington Is President's Desire

Washington, March 17.—President Harding has expressed a desire that the body of one unknown American soldier be buried with fitting honors at Arlington National Cemetery next Armistice Day, it was learned today at the War Department. The President is arranging to take a part in the exercises, it was said, and the details are now being arranged.

The department probably will recommend to Congress that a Congressional Medal of Honor be awarded the unknown soldiers. Similar medals already have been awarded the unknown dead buried with distinguished ceremonies in London and Paris.

KANSAS BANK CLEANED OUT

Uniontown, Kas., March 17.—The State Bank at Uniontown was robbed yesterday of nearly every dollar of cash and securities, officers placing the loss at between $30,000 and $40,000. The robbers gathered the loot into bags and escaped in an automobile. Before dynamiting the vault of the bank the bandits cut all telephone wires into the town.

ALAS! THE POOR BLONDE, JUDGE FINDS HER FICKLE

New York, March 17.—Since "Blondes are fickle," a mixed jury composed of men and brunette women yesterday heard arguments in a damage suit growing out of a clothing deal and returned a verdict in favor of Harris Levine, a clothing manufacturer, who sued Hyman W. Alter and Joseph H. Jones for $761.75.

This is believed to be the first jury made up of both women and women that has ever tried a case in the State.

In ordering that both sexes participate Justice William Morris, of the Municipal Court said, "there will be no blondes on this jury either Blondes are fickle."

British Police Search Croker's Dublin Mansion

Dublin, March 17.—Richard Croker, former "boss" of Tammany Hall, is the latest to fall under the suspicion of Dublin Castle as being connected with the Irish revolutionary movement, and although Mr. Croker is away, his mansion, Glencairn, located outside of Dublin, was raided by a large force of Black and Tans in a search for documents.

The search was one of the most carefully conducted in Ireland and lasted for hours. Not a corner from cellar to garret escaped the most minute inspection. This also includes the stables where Mr. Croker's famous horses are kept. No results of the raid, if any, were announced

Harvey Is Formally Approved by Britain

London, March 17.—The British Government today gave formal approval to the appointment of Colonel George B. M. Harvey as United States Ambassador to Great Britain to succeed John W. Davis, who resigned.

CAN EAT EVERYTHING NOW

Shipyard Worker Has No Trouble After Meals Since Taking Chasco-Vin

"Chasco-Vin did wonders for me. I can now eat everything without trouble afterwards and that means a lot to anyone who has been troubled with indigestion and dyspepsia.

For some time I tried different remedies but could only get temporary relief. I was urged to try Chasco-Vin and at last I did so. I have only taken two bottles of it and feel fine. Indeed Chasco-Vin did such good work for me that I recommend it as a great medicine for those who have been through what I have experienced." W. R. Roya, New York shipyard worker.

Chasco-Vin is sold by specially appointed agents only. In Alexandria the Chasco-Vin agent is Edgar Warfield, corner King and Pitt Sts.

GIRLS THINK PARTING KISS REWARD FOR DUE, SHE SAYS

Chicago, March 17.—"Few girls would go wrong if parents taught them from the moment of going out with young men always to pay their own way, wherever they went," is part of the philosophy of Mrs. Helen Faulson, famous child psychologist, who is making a speaking tour of the city, under the auspices of the Rotary Club.

Many girls begin what often results in an unfortunate climax by allowing their boy friends to kiss them good night, she said. They do it, according to Mrs. Faulson, because they feel they owe something for the money the boys have spent on them. At the Hamilton Club yesterday, Mrs. Faulson caused a near riot by accusing the fathers of young people of being the chief contributors to their wildness.

Germany Has Large Deposits In American National Banks

Washington, March 17.—Inclusion by the Allied Reparations Commission of the American Federal Reserve banks as an optional depository for German indemnity payments brought from Treasury officials last night the statement that the commission possibly had two purposes in view.

First—To enable the German Government to call upon "vast credits" which it is said to hold through private agents in the United States.

Second—To employ in favor of the Allied governments the tremendous difference in exchange rates.

Information gathered by the Reserve banks was said to show that since the armistice Germany has been amassing credits in United States national banks, holding the funds in the names of individuals. No approximate estimate of the amount could be obtained, but officials said the sum would run into millions of dollars. The money, it was said, was presumed to be for use in Germany's future trade, much of which would center in the United States.

Some $30,000,000 is now held for foreign governments, the weekly statement of the Federal Reserve Board shows, and to receive a deposit from Germany, although a technical entry, would mean only the placing of that additional credit to the nations designated by the commission.

Officials gave no explanation of methods employed by the Germans in building up their supply of funds in this country. It was said that their Government has used similar tactics in Holland, in the Scandinavian countries and more lately in London after assurance had been given by the British that the deposits would not be confiscated.

In some quarters it was believed that Allied intelligence agents had discovered the existence of German funds here and that the commission had acted on the feeling that Germany would use the money in indemnity payments. The suggestion also was made that Germany might attempt to borrow in the United States, in which case the shipment of gold to Europe would react favorably on the exchange situation, now strongly against the Allied nations. No information has reached the Treasury, however, it was said, that would indicate Germany had sought or would seek loans through private financial houses here.

$1,000,000 FOR WOMEN OF EAST

New York, March 17.—Trustees of the Laura Spelman Rockefeller Memorial Fund will grant $1,000,000 for the purpose of aiding colleges for women in the Orient, on condition that $2,000,000 is raised by a special committee of the Women's American Baptist Foreign Missionary Society. This announcement was made here yesterday by Mrs. Henry W. Peabody, of Boston, the president of the society.

The money is to be used for buildings for the six colleges in Japan, China and India, which are supported by the Baptist foreign mission boards of the United States. The fund is greatly interested in educational work among the women of the Orient.

BOOTLEGGER'S BODY FOUND ON NIAGARA

Buffalo, March 17.—A whisky smugglers war along the Niagara frontier loomed up yesterday when the body of Roy E. Schindler, 25 years old, of this city, alleged whisky runner, was found in a waterlogged skiff in the rapids of the Niagara river, drifting toward the falls The skiff was found by Capt. Frank Fix, an old riverman, who was towing a barge down the river near Motor Island. There was a jagged wound under the man's chin and his head was cut and bruised.
